INSTRUCTIONS

The materials in Resource Booklet 93401R will enable you to become familiar with the theme and contexts of this examination: urbanisation, urban settlements, and urban growth.

Space for planning has been provided on pages 4, 10, and 16 of this booklet that will help you prepare your responses. These notes will not be marked. The questions on page 3 are repeated on their respective planning pages.

Begin your answer for Question One on page 5, for Question Two on page 11, and for Question Three on page 17.

QUESTION ONE (8 marks)

Critically analyse how the role and/or functions of cities have changed over time.

Your answer must include:

- specific information from the resource booklet
- knowledge and ideas you have gained from your studies in Geography
- relevant original and/or adapted visuals, such as maps, graphs, and diagrams.

Use page 4 to plan your answer, and begin your response to Question One on page 5.

QUESTION TWO (8 marks)

In its 2008 report, the United Nations Population Fund stresses that:

“Urbanisation – the increase in the urban share of total population – is inevitable, but it can also be positive. Yet no country in the industrial age has ever achieved significant economic growth without urbanisation.”

The United Nations Population Fund (2008).

Discuss, with reference to a range of different perspectives, the idea that cities come at a price.

You may consider this on a global scale, or from a national, regional, or single-city perspective.

Your answer must include:

- specific information from the resource booklet
- knowledge and ideas you have gained from your studies in Geography
- relevant original and/or adapted visuals, such as maps, graphs, and diagrams.

Use page 10 to plan your answer, and begin your response to Question Two on page 11.

QUESTION THREE (8 marks)

Does the city have a future? Discuss and justify.

Your answer must include:

- specific information from the resource booklet and any other relevant case studies
- arguments that are well-justified with clear analysis.

Use page 16 to plan your answer, and begin your response to Question Three on page 17.
